,,, ,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,	- 	Approved For Release 2004/07/08: GIA-RDP82-00457R006700400014-3 CLASSIFICATION
OUNTR	v	25X1 PEPORT NO 25X1
ropic		Military Information from Eastern Slovakta
UPIO	***************************************
EVALUAT	ION	25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1
		ONTENT prior to 3 November 1950
		25X1 PATE PREPARED 20 December 1950 25X1
DATE OF		T I by C asserted
REFERE		2 25X1ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
PAGES
REMARK	(S	artiry TO vivi
		25X1 RETURN TO U
		E 28) were later also transferred to Michalovce. The regiment was quartered
5X1		in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49//E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2)
25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Mosice (R 49//E 3h) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2)
	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Earracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49//E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 11th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/
25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Earracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49//E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 11th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/
25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49/E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 14th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49/E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 14th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49/E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 14th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to deep used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49//E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 11th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (E 49/D 19) and Jelsava (1 49/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve MCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49/E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 14th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to then been used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Fresov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve NCO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 19//E 3h) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Fresov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were arraed with pistols and short automatic gums. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 11th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 19/D 19) and Jelsava (1 19/D 53) in early November 1950.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	3.	in the Stefanik Barracks, formerly State Barracks, which had up to deen used for the storage of agricultural products; the replacement battalion remained in the Jiskrov Barracks, Presov. (1) In late September 1950 an infantry and artillery reserve NGO school was transferred from Milovice (0 51/G 00) to the Masaryk Barracks, formerly the Artillery Barracks, in Presov. The school moved to Kosice (R 49//E 34) in late October 1950. A special unit, possibly a regiment, arrived in Presov from an unidentified post on 30 and 31 October 1950. It was quartered in the Masaryk, Stefanik and Jiskrov Barracks, while one battalion was stationed in Sabinov. The personnel of this regiment were convinced Communists and were armed with pistols and short automatic guns. The soldiers, who were very reserved in their dealings with the civilian population, patrolled the town and its surroundings. At the same time an AF unit arrived in Presov by air and was quartered in the Stefanik Barracks. (2) Elements of the 14th Inf Regt were quartered in Roznava (R 49/D 53) in early November 1950.

	Approved For Release 2004/07/08 : CIA-RDP82-00457R006700400014-3
		25X1
05.74	,
25X1	6.	assigned to a technical unit in Solosnica P 49/T 02), was stationed in Kamenica nad Cirokou up to 21 October
25X1		1950. (5)
20/(1	7.	A tank regiment, a signal battalion and a motor transport battalion were stationed in Turcianski Svaety Martin (Q 50/C 69) prior to 21 October 1950.(6)
	8.	SNB training centers were located in Levoca, Bardejov (R 50/E 30) and Presov prior to 10 October 1950. Special strees was given to training in anti-partisan fighting in mountainous terrain. The SNB unit in Presov had the cover name of Jasan. (7) 9.
25X1	70
	10.	About 10 Soviet AF officers arrived in Mosice on 13 October 1950. Their missions were not determined.
	440	Railroad employees stated repeatedly that Soviets wearing civilian clothes were traveling through Slovakia to Hungary. Numerous shipments were observed;
		they passed through Slovakia only at night. The Soviet personnel concerned were registered as economists or technicians. (9)
25X1
25X1		Comment. The transfer of the 20th Inf Regt requires confirmation. An infantry battalion of undetermined subordination was reportedly stationed
25X1		in Michalovce in October 1949. Since its reorganization
25X1		in October 1949, the 20th Inf Regt has consisted of only one infantry battalion and a replacement battalion.
25X1		Comment. it possible that the special unit was a parachute
25X1		Comment. The information confirms the lith Inf Regt in its previously
25X1		known locations. This regiment is believed to be composed
25X1		of only two bettalions. For translation of the document mentioned see Annex 1. Comment. The 32d Inf Regt was confirmed in Kosice and Trebisov,
25X1		For translation of assignment card see Annex 2.
25X1	 	Comment. a labor battalion, a company of which was reportedly stationed in Kamenica in May 1950.
25X1		Comment. The 352d SP Arty Bn, which is probably the same as the tank
25X1		regiment mentioned, is stationed in Turciansky Svaety Martin. The signal battalion is believed to be a component of the 4th Sig Regt, which
25X1	_	had been confirmed in Turciansky Svaety Martin up to September 1949.
25X1		Comment. SNB units were repeatedly observed in Levoca, Barbejov and Presov. The cover name of Jasan is used by
25X1 25X1		a special SNB unit which to date has only been observed in Prague.
25X1		This special unit is employed for the guarding of government buildings, government personnel, foreigners, etc.
25X1 25X1		Comment.
25X1 25X1		Pliesovce is the railroad station of the Oremov Laz troop training grounds. For translation of induction order see Annex 3.
25X1		Comment. Soviet soldiers were concerned.
25X1
25X1 25X1		,
	L
25X1
		CONFIDENTIAL
		25X1	